

Pam Johnson

Algoma Public Library Welcomes new staff Member!

Hello! My name is Pam Johnson. I am the new Young Adult Librarian. I am originally from Madison, but have lived in Milwaukee for the past 15 years. I received my Masters in Library Science from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and I am very excited for this opportunity to work for the Algoma Public Library. I am looking forward to starting different programs, book clubs and projects for youth between the ages of 12 & 18. If you have any suggestions for programs please come and introduce yourselves and give me your ideas.

July 31st: Germ Busters!

Book Clubs!

Book Worms meets on July 21st at 1 pm and 5 pm.

This month we are reading Code Name Verity by Elizabeth Wein. Part of the Young Pilot series, "Verity" is arrested by the Gestapo as a spy and is given a choice – reveal her mission or face execution. Will she tell the truth? Will she survive the war? Will she make it home? Please join us in reading Code Name Verity, copies can be picked up at our Circulation desk. Feel free to join us for one of our discussion times.

E-Reader Help Session

Wednesday, July 7th at 1 pm. Sign up in advanced for an appointment to get help on your e-device. Appointments are 20 minutes each.

Baby Storytime

Held on Tuesdays at 10 am for babies and toddlers birth through 2 years old. Baby storytime is a chance to share books and songs with your little ones. Babies coo, they cuddle, and enjoy books. Babies love to observe and learn a great deal about language before they say a word. That's why it is so important to read to your young children.

Themed Baby Storytimes

July 7th: Beach Babies
July 14th: Piggy Party
July 21st: Things That Go
July 28th: If I Ran the Zoo

Necessary Conversations

Neighbor to Neighbor from Door County has been working on a special project called Still Alice Project. The goal of this project is to make the community aware in an effort to become more dementia-friendly with support through resources and a supportive discussion. Neighbor to Neighbors will be coming on Tuesday, July 14th at 5:30 pm they will host a discussion on Necessary Conversations presentation. On Monday, July 27th at 1 pm to show Still Alice followed by a discussion on Alzheimer's disease.

Reading Education Assistance Dog

Come read with Trooper, a Reading Education Assistance Dog. He will be visiting the library on Wednesday, July 8th at 4:3-5:30 pm. R.E.A.D uses registered therapy animals that have been trained and tested for health, safety, appropriate skills and temperament. The animals are ideal reading companions because they listen attentively, do not judge, laugh or criticize. Parents and children are encouraged to meet Trooper and read to him.

Internet Hour

Internet hour is held on the second Tuesday of each month from 11 am- 12 pm for those with questions about email, browsing the internet and more.

1000 Books before Kindergarten

Don't forget to sign your child up. Sign up at the circulation desk. Summertime is a great time to read with your little ones to help prepare them for Kindergarten in September!
