Farewell to Pam!

As of June 16th, I will be leaving my position at the library, I am very grateful for the opportunity to learn, grow and serve the Algoma community through the library. Algoma library has been a wonderful place to work and serve and I will miss the people and especially the young adults of the community. But I hope to be back for a visit and see the wonderful things the library continues to do in Algoma. – Pam-

Algoma Library Friends Book Store

The Friends' are getting close to opening the Book Corner at 401 Third Street, Algoma, WI. They are still looking for volunteers for lugging books, sorting, shelving books, and volunteering to staff the store once open. A signup sheet is at the library.

As always the proceeds will be in support of our library and the excellent programs, it offers to our community. We know you will continue to give us your valued help in this venture.
