

New Reads!

The Great Zoo of China (fiction thriller) by Matthew Reilly

Author Matthew Reilly exposes a secret that the Chinese government has been concealing for forty years. They have proven that dragons exist and are preparing to construct a zoo which will astonish the world. In the tradition of Jurassic Park, everything is safe and secure. Really?

Cold Cold Heart by Tami Hoag (mystery fiction) also available as an audiobook Dana Nolan, a young TV reporter who has survived an attack by a serial killer, returns to her small home town to investigate the unsolved case of her childhood best friend. Seeking the truth may be too hard to believe.

The Man Who Touched His Own Heart : True Tales of Science, Surgery and Mystery by Ron Dunn (non-fiction)

This non-fiction account explores the history of the human heart, from the use of corpses dug up illegally by early physicians, to human heart transplants.

An Appetite for Violets by Martine Bailey (fiction novel)

Biddy Leigh is an under-cook at Mawton Hall who wants to marry her sweetheart and establish a tavern of her own. Biddy's elderly master marries young and beautiful Lady Carinna, setting the stage for secrets, scheming and lies. Biddy is forced to accompany her young mistress to Italy and France where, despite the intrigue, Biddy collects culinary discoveries in a book of recipes, The Cook's Jewel. "An Appetite for Violets is a literary feast for lovers of historical fiction".

Did you know?

Algoma Public Library Fact for 2014:

- Books checked out: 41,100 to adults and children
- 17,000 books are children's fiction!

OWLSNet Consortium facts:

- Access to 1,653,156 items via InfoSoup accessible with a library card good for 3 years and at 53 libraries in the Nicolet Federated and Outagamie Waupaca Library Systems
- e-book use: over 3,000 checked out for free throughout the InfoSoup catalog

Don't forget! The library has genealogy resources, local, state and regional newspapers, magazines, music CDs, movies, large print books, books on disc and more. So, come to the Algoma Public Library, read a newspaper or magazine, check out that book, DVD, attend a program (we have them for all ages) and find that the library is a warm place, for both mind and body.

Tax Help

March 6th and 13th at City Council Chambers:
Please call to make an appointment with Aging Services at (920) 388-0626.

Contact Us

Phone: (920) 487-2295
Email: alg@mail.nfls.lib.wi.us
Web: www.algomapubliclibrary.org

ALGOMA PUBLIC LIBRARY

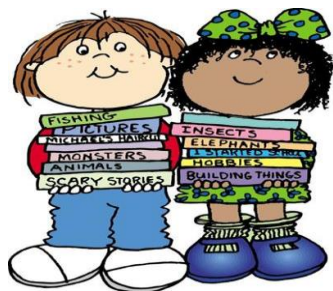

406 Fremont Street
Algoma, WI 54201

ALGOMA PUBLIC LIBRARY

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE ALGOMA PUBLIC LIBRARY

March 2015

Story Hour

Begins at 10 AM every Friday in the Library. Come join us as we sing songs, perform fingerplays, read stories and craft together!

Baby Storytime

Held on Tuesdays at 10 AM for Babies and toddlers birth through 2 years old. Have older siblings? Bring them along too!

Baby storytime is a chance to share books and songs with your little ones. Babies coo, they cuddle, and they enjoy books. Babies love to observe and learn a great deal about language before they ever say a word. That's why it is so important to read to your young children.

Happy Birthday Dr. Seuss!

Come celebrate Dr. Seuss' birthday with us on March 2nd 5:30 PM dressed as your favorite book character. Read your favorite Dr. Seuss book and make a craft with us!

Friday After School Movies

Every Friday at 3:30 PM. Bring a friend, popcorn will be provided.

Mar. 6th: Box Trolls

Mar. 13th: Up

Mar. 20th: The Princess Bride

Mar. 27th: My Neighbor Totoro

Book Clubs!

Book Worms meets March 17, 2015 at 1 PM and 5 PM

This month we are reading Alice I Have Been by Melanie Benjamin. Fictional historical novel that follows a young girl, Alice, from childhood to adulthood. Alice faces many obstacles including a large family, tragedy, getting married and having her own family and being simply known to the world as "Alice". Alice is a girl that inspired a professor to weave a wild tale of rabbits, queens, in his attempts to immortalize her.

Kids Book Club:

March 23: 3:15 PM 5th Grade Book Talks: Night by Elie Wiesel – Nobel Peace Prize
An autobiography of Elie Wiesel and his account of the terror of his family and himself being taken to the Jewish concentration camps Auschwitz and later Buchenwald in 1944. Wiesel tells of his family's death and how his experiences in the concentration camps changed him.

Coming Soon!

Wisconsin Talking Book and Braille Book Library available for the hard of hearing, vision impaired and physically impaired. These books can be checked out through our library for a 60 day loan or individuals will be able to pick up an individual application and have items delivered to their homes! This is a free service.

Reading Education Assistance Dog

Come read with Trooper, a Reading Education Assistance Dog, he will be visiting the library on Wednesday March 11 from 5:30- 6:30 PM. R.E.A.D. uses registered therapy animals that have been trained and tested for health, safety, appropriate skills and temperament. The animals are ideal reading companions because they listen attentively, do not judge, laugh or criticize. Parents and children are encouraged to meet Trooper and read to him.

Internet Hour

Internet hour is held on the second Tuesday of each month from 11 AM- 12 PM for those with questions about email, browsing the internet and more.

Immunizations

March 18th 3-6 PM: Please call and make an appointment with the Kewaunee Public Health Nurse at (920) 388-7160.